Introduction of Mominul Islam

Mominul Islam is a tireless writer. He has written endlessly in all branches of literature. He is a person who used to be very simple in behaviour and life and always loves laughter and jokes. He can dive deep into life into the roots, and also float up to the higher levels. His writing is just like his wishes.

Mominul Islam was born at 'Kewa Paschim Khanda' village of Sreepur Upazila in Gazipur district of Bangladesh on 31 January 1970.

His Father's Name Is MD. Kalim Uddin Molla and Mother's Name MST. Hazera Khatun.

He attended Mawna JM Government Primary School as a child. He passed his SSC from Mawna Multilateral High School. He studied for his higher secondary at Bhawal Badre Alam Government College. He did Honors and Masters in Social Science from Rajshahi University. Professionally, he is an assistant professor at the Department of Social Sciences, Pear Ali University College.

He has also gained a reputation as a motivational speaker. He spoke in all kinds of institutions and among people of all strata of life.

He is a kind-hearted person who is used to living a very simple life. He writes out of a sense of responsibility for humanity. 'Love yourself', and 'Live for yourself' are his philosophy.

Every man should understand the value of his own life. He has to love himself and learn to live on his own. How can a person who does not love himself love others? If you can be established, you can extend your hand to raise others on the ladder of the establishment. Not to dream but to build a positive life in the light of rational conscience and realistic thinking, he conducts motivational classes.

As he is as dedicated to the mental well-being of people, as he is to their physical well-being too. He realized that health care is the most important thing in human life. Thus, he has devoted himself to the work of creating awareness of the protection of public health. He is an honourable adviser of one of Gazipur's healthcare institutions - 'Al-Hera Hospital'.
